

Historic, archived document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62.97

OCTOBER SPECIAL ON PERENNIAL PLANTS

12 Assorted Plants $1.50 Postpaid

Here's your opportunity to make up your own special collection of Hardy Flowering Plants of your own choosing at the price you ordinarily pay for an "already made up" assortment. Take any assortment you wish, whether all of one kind, several kind or 1 each of a dozen sorts. Here's the list from which to make your selection:

Achillea-White or red
Anthemis-The yellow daisy
Columbine-In gorgeous mixed colors
Coreopsis-Very hardy and a persistent bloomer
Daisy-The large early Shasta
Delphinium-In dark or light blue
Digitalis-The attractive Foxglove
Eupatorium-The hardy Ageratum
Hibiscus-In red, white or pink
Hollyhocks-Double red, pink, white
Gypsophila-Baby's breath
Gaillardia-Sometimes called Blanket Flower
Mertensia-Old fashioned Bluebells
Hardy Garden Pinks-Assorted colors and varieties
Platycodon-Chinese Balloon Flower
Pyrethrum-Painted daisies
Perennial Sweet Peas-Mixed colors
Sweet William-The everblooming red
Sweet Russian Violets-Hardy and sweet scented

They are all field grown plants well rooted and ready for transplanting right now. The sooner you plant them, the more root growth they'll make before the ground freezes and the better the bloom next year. Better get a dozen or two this fall at this price.

- - - - -

A REMINDER ABOUT PEONIES

It isn't too late yet to plant peonies. You can plant them safely until the ground freezes for the winter. Our Cream of the List Collection consisting of 4 good named varieties that bloom at Decoration time is a good buy that's sure to be satisfactory. Better order today. $1.00 brings it, postpaid.

HENRY FIELD COMPANY

OCTOBER 1934

SHENANDOAH, IOWA.

